WELCOME TO SELANGOR

...a never-ending discovery

Selangor is hailed as the gateway to Malaysia, given its strategic location to all major travel routes. It is home to the Kuala Lumpur International Airport (KLIA), the country's main entry point and Port Klang, the largest port in Malaysia. There is an extensive network of highways and expressways in the state, making all parts of Selangor easily accessible.

The location of Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia's capital city and Putrajaya, the federal administrative centre within the bounds of the state further enhances the touristic appeal of Selangor. The magnificent Kota Darul Ehsan Arch along the Federal Highway welcomes visitors driving into the state. This Moorish styled arch (featured on the front cover), is the state's most distinguished landmark, erected to mark the ceding of Kuala Lumpur to the Federal Government in 1974.

Selangor dazzles with a fascinating variety of attractions. Its flourishing urban centres, such as Petaling Jaya, Subang Jaya, Sunway and the royal town of Klang abound with modern facilities, from excellent healthcare institutions, international colleges to huge shopping malls and recreation centres.

Shah Alam, Selangor's capital, has the distinction of being a well-planned township which harmonises nature with modernity. Here, residential areas and commercial centres are set amidst lush landscapes and a sprawling lake. Away from the urban centres, refreshing scenes of rural villages and serene coastlines begin to unfurl.

This exciting destination is also the venue of world-class sporting events such as the Petronas F1 Grand Prix and Malaysian Motorcycle Grand Prix.

History-lovers will be enchanted by Selangor's colourful past. Recapture the glorious days of its tin mining industry and the splendour of its royal household. Showcasing a wealth of attractions such as diverse cultures, unique places of interest, historical landmarks and sumptuous culinary delights, Selangor is indeed a never-ending discovery.

TIME-HONOURED TRADITIONS

Culture and Heritage

The people of Selangor are a fascinating diversity of Malays, Chinese, Indians and various other ethnic groups. While they live in harmony, each community has preserved its distinct culture and time-honoured traditions. Consequently, Selangor is a destination of colourful festivals as well as historical attractions.

Bandar Palace

The stately Bandar Palace is located in the historical town of Jugra, near the southern coast of Selangor. In the past, when Jugra was the seat of ancient kings, Bandar Palace was the venue to entertain prominent dignitaries and foreign emissaries. Built in the early 20th century and inspired by the fifth Sultan of Selangor, Sultan Alauddin Shah, the palace boasts exquisite woodcarvings that enhance its magnificent marble structure. This remarkable edifice has 15 generously proportioned rooms and a lush garden, a great contrast to its humble surroundings. Nearby is the historical Sultan Alauddin Mosque, boasting graceful domes and a mesmerising display of Islamic architecture.

Royal Mausoleum

Situated atop one of the several hills in Jugra, the Royal Mausoleum of Sultan Abdul Samad is a combination of various architectural styles including Western Classical and Indo-Muslim. Built in 1898, this mausoleum commands a scenic view of the surrounding countryside. Here, the fourth Sultan of Selangor, Sultan Abdul Samad and other members of the past royal family were laid to rest.

Melawati Hill

Melawati Hill is located in the coastal town of Kuala Selangor, a 30-minute drive from Kuala Lumpur. In the late 18th century, the second Sultan of Selangor had a fortress constructed on Melawati Hill to protect the state from intruders. The hill provided a vantage point to monitor ships in the Straits of Malacca. Even with a strategic hold, the Melawati Fort yielded to the Dutch cannons.

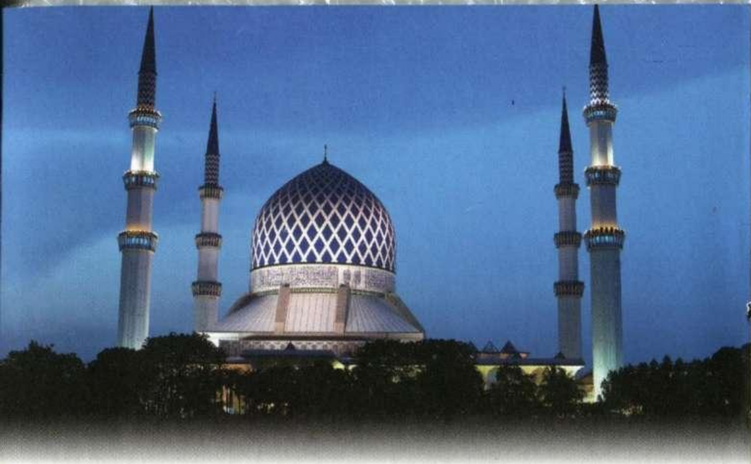

It was again destroyed during the Selangor Civil War, when warring factions fought for tin-rich lands. All that remains of the fort now are its cannons, its original foundation stones and a fabled execution block.

The landscaped hill offers a panoramic view of the Selangor coastline. Visitors will be delighted to watch the free-roaming Silverleaf Monkeys in the area. The adults are dark-haired with a tinge of silver, while the young ones are a bright orange. Gentle and adorable, they graciously wait for bread or fruits from visitors, unlike the mischievous Long Tail Macaques here.

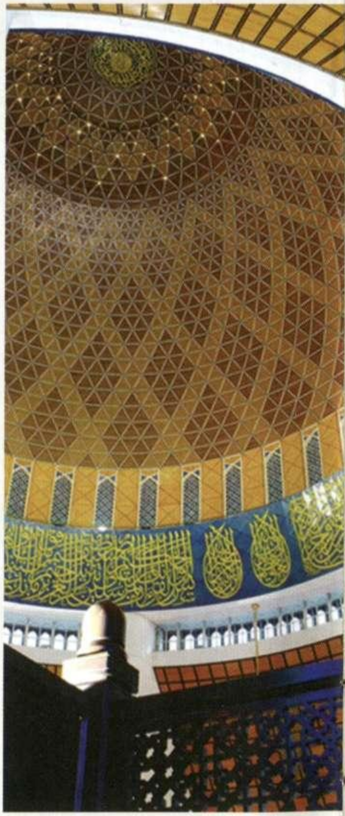

Other attractions here are a lighthouse, a royal mausoleum and a quaint rest house.

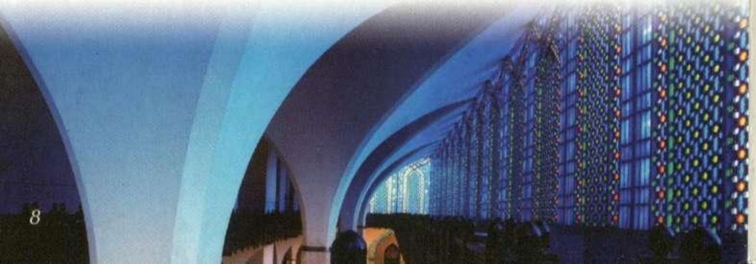

The Blue Mosque

The Sultan Salahuddin Abdul Aziz Shah Mosque in Shah Alam is reputedly one of the most stunning structures in the country. Commonly referred to as the 'Blue Mosque', it boasts the tallest minarets in the world.

As visitors approach the mosque, they are welcomed by the awe-inspiring blue dome. Decorative Islamic calligraphy dominates the edges surrounding the dome and main prayer-hall, while the interior architecture exhibits ethnic Malay design elements. Sunlight filtering through the blue stained glass of the mosque renders a bluish ambience to its interior, evoking a sense of peace and serenity.

Batu Caves

Located in a limestone outcrop 15 kilometres north of Kuala Lumpur, Batu Caves is one of the most popular tourist attractions in Selangor. This famous destination draws people from all over the world during the annual Hindu festival, Thaipusam. It consists of three big caves, including the main temple cave which features ornate Hindu shrines.

Scaling the 272 steps leading up to the temple is one of the highlights of a visit to Batu Caves. Another attraction is the 140-feet statue of Lord Muruga, reputed to be the tallest in the world.

Nearby is the Ramayana Cave where evocative scenes of Indian epic myths are artistically painted along its walls. The limestone structure is also a popular spot for rock climbing.

FGS Dong Zen Monastery

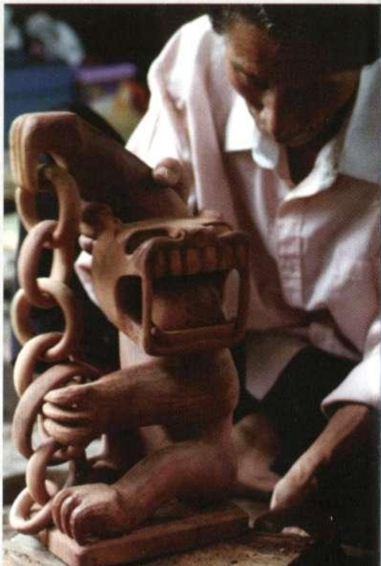

Situated in Jenjarom, this Buddhist monastery is a tranquil enclave of beautifully landscaped gardens and scenic beauty. It is known as a centre for Buddhist religious education and culture.

The 16-acre land consists of several sections, including a monumental archway, the area of the Eighteen Arhats, the Bodhisattva Guan Yin Statue, a main shrine, relics shrine, art gallery, courtyard and several buildings. The tea house here serves vegetarian food.

Orang Asli Museum

The uniqueness of Malaysia's Orang Asli (indigenous people) is best observed through the practices and traditions inherited from their ancestors. The Orang Asli Museum in Gombak offers an insight into the traditional lifestyle and culture of Selangor's Orang Asli. It has an extensive collection of tribal paraphernalia such as carved ancestral masks, blowpipes and spears, adornments as well as musical instruments and figurines.

Carey Island

Located on Selangor's coast, a 20-minute drive from the royal town of Klang, this island is home to the indigenous Mah Meri community. The Mah Meri are known for their mask sculptures fashioned as an ancestral tribute during their new year celebration, also known as Ancestors' Day. Offerings, dances and rituals add colour to this occasion.

Little India

For those in search of unique buys, head to Klang to browse through its bustling 'Little India'. Here, amidst the pre-war shop houses, visitors will find a vibrant community that has preserved its distinct way of life. Discover a profusion of authentically Indian items such as colourful saris, an assortment of sweetmeats, aromatic spices, exotic fragrances and dazzling adornments.

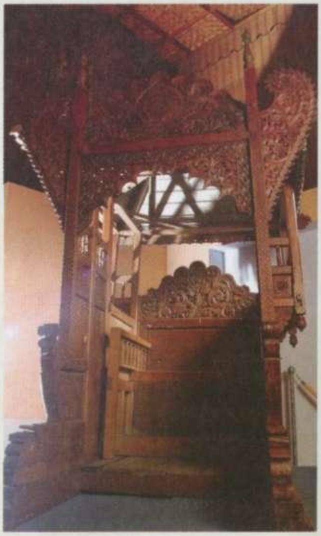

Garden of Islamic Art

Overlooking the Blue Mosque, the Garden of Islamic Art is a beautifully landscaped park inspired by the Quranic Garden of Paradise. Covering 14 hectares, this spiritual sanctuary houses nine galleries that exhibit a rich array of Islamic arts such as calligraphy, sculptures, paintings and architecture. Occasionally, traditional Islamic performances are held here.

Sultan Alam Shah Museum

Situated at the heart of Shah Alam, the Sultan Alam Shah Museum is a commanding blue-roofed building that showcases some of the finest displays in the country. Entering the museum, visitors will be enveloped by the grandeur of Selangor's bygone era. Some of its treasured artefacts are the royal regalia of the affluent Selangor Sultanate as well as the relics of the British era.

NATURE'S TREASURES

Eco-tourism

Selangor is endowed with verdant forest reserves, scenic waterfalls and fascinating wetlands, offering eco-lovers a host of outdoor activities within easy reach of the city.

National Zoo

The National Zoo is located in Hulu Klang, about 13 kilometres from Kuala Lumpur. The zoo houses over 4,000 mammals, reptiles, birds and fish within its 25-hectare grounds. Visitors can spend a whole day observing its many inhabitants or enjoy entertaining performances by the orang utans and sea lions.

The horse, camel and elephant rides promise a fun-filled experience for children and adults alike. The spacious picnic grounds and boating lake are excellent for family recreation. Other facilities include restaurants and mini-train rides. For an opportunity to watch nocturnal animals, visit the zoo on Saturday nights.

Forest Research Institute of Malaysia (FRIM)

Nature lovers will enjoy a visit to this vast forest reserve, located in Kepong on the north-western fringe of Kuala Lumpur. Gain an insight into Malaysia's tropical flora and fauna from its various arboretums (living museum of trees) and wetland area. Walk through the nature trails or visit the herb gardens and marvel at its 15,000 species of plants. The park's canopy walkway suspended 30 metres above ground level, offers a memorable and thrilling experience. On clear days, visitors can enjoy a breathtaking view of the city skyline and the surrounding greenery. FRIM also has a camping ground, picnic areas, jogging trails and a souvenir shop.

Note: The canopy walkway is open from 9.30am - 2.30pm daily, except on Mondays and Fridays. (Last entrance is at 1.00pm).

Paya Indah Wetlands

Located in Sepang, in the vicinity of the Kuala Lumpur International Airport is Malaysia's premier eco-tourism park. The park is an oasis of lush vegetation and fascinating wildlife such as crocodiles, hippos, pelicans, pink flamingos, swans, Mandarin ducks and Manchurian cranes. Its Palm Garden is reputed to contain the world's largest collection of palm species.

Its lake teems with aquatic life and is covered with lotus blossoms and towering elephant grass. Activities like cycling, trekking and canoeing are available for the energetic while those who prefer a slower pace can take a relaxing stroll through the peaceful, landscaped gardens. Other attractions include trams and horse-cart rides.

Kanching Recreational Forest

A mere 30-minute drive from Kuala Lumpur, lies the Kanching Recreational Forest, an invigorating getaway amidst nature. Situated in the Kanching Forest Reserve, the area is a haven for various species of birds and monkeys. The Kanching Waterfalls presents a dramatic backdrop to the jungle setting. Hike up to the top of its seven tiers for a superb view of the surroundings.

Located nearby is Templer Park, a popular picnic spot with waterfalls and cool streams. A short drive away is the beautifully landscaped Commonwealth Forest Park. Nestled within a dense jungle, the area offers chalets, trekking paths, a fountain and a camping site.

Firefly Parks

The firefly colonies of Kampung Kuantan and Kampung Bukit Belimbing are among the most popular tourist attractions in Selangor. Visitors can feast their eyes on the spectacular light displays from these unique insects, which live on the berembang trees that grow along Kuala Selangor's riverbanks.

Boats can be hired at the Kampung Kuantan jetty for these nocturnal tours. The skilled local oarsmen make this experience a memorable and unforgettable one. The Firefly Park Resort in Kampung Bukit Belimbing offers visitors an opportunity to view the enchanting display as well as enjoy a night's stay at the chalet.

Morib

Located within a 30-minute drive from Klang, Morib is a popular recreational spot surrounded by whispering casuarinas and swaying palms. At low tide, the shore stretches far into the Straits of Malacca. Visitors can watch small crabs that scuttle away and disappear into the sand. Lovers of history will also discover that Morib contains a wealth of historical sites such as ruins of old government buildings, royal graves and an abandoned palace.

Shah Alam Lake Gardens

This green lung is a favourite retreat for Shah Alam residents, especially in the evenings. Set within a beautifully landscaped garden, the lake is a man-made attraction that gives a picturesque look to the area. There is a good footpath that traverses the garden, making jogging one of the favourite activities here. Visitors can enjoy dining in the lake's floating seafood restaurant, or delight in a picnic by the lake. The beautiful grounds are also the venue for annual events such as the International Boat Show and the International Orchid Exhibition.

The Galeri Shah Alam, an art gallery within the vicinity, showcases art pieces, local handicraft and fabrics for sale. It is popular among collectors for its extraordinary creations crafted by local artisans.

Golfing

Selangor is a paradise for golf enthusiasts, with courses that are designed by world-renowned names. The state has close to forty golf clubs, with something to interest golfers of all levels. Both serious golfers who appreciate a challenging game, and players who enjoy a lighter pace will have a rewarding time on Selangor's fairways.

Shopping

A visit to Selangor will not be complete without a trip to the many shopping outlets located mainly in the townships of Petaling Jaya, Subang Jaya and Shah Alam. From high-end couture to ethnic handicrafts and the internationally acclaimed pewterware, Selangor has it all. Enjoy the comforts and convenience of shopping in huge air-conditioned malls and hypermarkets. Besides shopping, families have a choice of watching a movie, having fun at the bowling alley or enjoying the spread at the food court. Shoppers can also browse for interesting curios on display at the weekly flea markets. Mingle with the jostling crowd and join in the excitement of haggling at the night markets or pasar malam, an interesting feature of local life. The best time to enjoy fantastic discounts and special offers is during the annual Mega Sale.

One Utama

One Utama is located in Bandar Utama, an affluent suburb in Selangor. Boasting over two million square feet of floor space, it is one of the most successful shopping malls in the state. It is popular for its excellent mix of tenants, including leading international chains. Shoppers can also enjoy a visit to its entertainment centre, cineplexes and food court.

Sunway Pyramid

The mall's striking Egyptian Pyramid-themed design with an imposing Sphinx guarding the entrance, is a unique landmark in the area. Located in the heart of the Sunway township, its 300 retail outlets offer shoppers a wide choice of merchandise. For a little excitement, try ice-skating at Pyramid Ice, the largest indoor ring in the country. Neighbouring attractions are the Sunway Lagoon Theme Park and the luxurious Sunway Lagoon Resort Hotel.

The Mines Shopping Fair

Visitors can make a grand entrance to this shopping mall by sailing down a canal on a water taxi. With over 250 retail outlets, there is an array of merchandise to choose from. Other attractions include cineplexes, a bowling alley, food court, an ice-skating rink and an indoor theme park. The Mines Shopping Fair is located within the Mines Resort City, which surrounds a man-made lake. It is a 30-minute drive away from Kuala Lumpur.

Subang Parade

Strategically located in the populous Subang Jaya township, this mall is easily accessible by public transport and is only a 10-minute drive from Petaling Jaya and Shah Alam. Although established in the late 80's, it is still one of the most frequented malls in Selangor. Subang Parade has over 170 retail outlets and offers a wide range of goods and services.

IOI Mall

With an area of about 650,000 square feet, this shopping and entertainment mall lies in the heart of Bandar Puchong Jaya, along the main Puchong trunk road. Boasting a Mediterranean architecture, this three-storey building has a total of 147 outlets. Attractions include its Food Street, Entertainment Wing, Education Corner, Fashion City and more.

SCRUMPTIOUS CUISINE

Dining

As a melting pot of cultures, Selangor has its distinct local specialties as well as a fusion of tastes. Visitors will find everything from traditional delights to an amazing array of international cuisine. Dining out in Selangor promises to be an enjoyable experience as visitors will be spoilt for choice. Take your pick from fine dining restaurants or open-air stalls.

Selangor's local fare has a variety of dishes to tempt all tastebuds, from the searingly piquant to the sinfully sweet. Try these local favourites to experience Selangor's gastronomic offerings.

Teh Tarik

Literally meaning 'stretched tea', the drink gets its name from the spectacular act of 'pulling' the hot piping tea from one mug to another. Be amazed by the swift movements of experts when streaming the tea. Mixed with evaporated milk, this delicious drink remains a favourite of most locals.

Roti Canai

This popular delicacy is a light crispy pancake made from wheat flour. Watch the experts toss and stretch the dough, then cook it to perfection on a griddle. Served with lentil curry, sugar or condensed milk, this traditional Malaysian breakfast also comes with a variety of fillings such as eggs, bananas or cheese.

Satay

Malaysia's famous signature dish consists of skewers of thick, succulent marinated meat, barbecued over charcoal embers. Although available everywhere, satay fans acknowledge that the restaurants in Kajang town serve the best satay. This dish is enjoyed with fresh slices of cucumber, onions, rice cubes and peanut dip.

M.I.C.E. FACILITIES

Meetings, Incentives, Conventions & Exhibitions

Selangor is one of the leading destinations in the region for international meetings and exhibitions. Most of the major hotels and exhibition centres are equipped with state-of-the-art facilities to cater for all types of MICE events. Selangor has played host to numerous high-profile forums such as the inaugural Commonwealth Tourism Ministers' Meeting and the 13th Non-Aligned Movement Summit.

World-Class Facilities

Selangor has numerous international-standard hotels and resorts, which can accommodate a large number of visitors. Most of the state's MICE centres are situated within the vicinity of shopping and business districts.

GETTING THERE

Travelling to Selangor is convenient as it is easily accessible from all major cities and all parts of the country by air, road and rail. The national carrier Malaysia Airlines has a global network that spans six continents and a national network that covers more than 36 local destinations. It operates from the Kuala Lumpur International Airport or KLIA, situated in Sepang, Selangor. The budget carrier AirAsia covers selected destinations in the region and around the country. It operates from the Low Cost Carrier Terminal or LCCT, situated 20km away from the KLIA Main Terminal Building.

By Air

The state-of-the-art Kuala Lumpur International Airport (KLIA) is the main gateway into Selangor. Its aesthetically pleasing architecture combines futuristic technology, elements of Malaysian culture and the rich tropical splendour of its rainforest. The high-speed KLIA Ekspres takes only 28 minutes from KLIA to Kuala Lumpur. Taxis, buses and car rental services are available from the airport to designated destinations in Selangor.

By Sea

The nation's largest port is Port Klang, with the ultra-modern Westport complementing the sophisticated berthing facilities in the area. Nearby is the Star Cruises terminal, which was built exclusively for the convenience of tourists arriving on cruise ships. Smaller single-facility jetties serve visitors from Dumai, Indonesia and the outlying local islands while private marinas welcome foreign guests who wish to berth their yachts in comfort and convenience.

By Rail

Visitors entering the country from Thailand and Singapore can make use of the Keretapi Tanah Melayu (KTM) or Malayan Railway. The KTM Komuter services many outlying districts and nearby towns such as Kajang, Port Klang, Shah Alam, Subang Jaya and Rawang. It is also linked to other rail transit services at the KL Sentral Station, a modern transportation hub in the city centre. Selangor is accessible from Kuala Lumpur by the STAR and Putra Light Rail Transit (LRT) services.

By Road

An excellent network of roads provides easy access to any destination within the state. Selangor is also linked to Singapore, Thailand and the rest of the peninsula by a system of tolled highways equipped with amenities such as rest areas, restaurants, souvenir shops and suraus (prayer rooms for Muslims).

GETTING AROUND

Travelling around Selangor is affordable and convenient. There are many ways one can choose to move around while enjoying the interesting sights in the state. Public buses, taxis and rail services such as the LRT and KTM Komuter offer hassle-free accessibility to well-known landmarks in Selangor. Alternatively hire a car for a self-drive adventure around town.
